IN MEMORY OF HERMANN GOLTZ THE LUTHERAN POET OF ST NICHOLAS

THE 650 CHURCHES OF ST NICHOLAS IN GERMANY

I knew prof. Hermann Goltz in 1997 when in Bari I organized the German-Italian Meeting on the VIII Centenary of the Dedication of St Nicholas Basilica (1197) by Conrad, bishop of Hildesheim. I entered in contact with him again between 2009 and 2010 for the organization of another meeting, but some difficulties made impossible its realization. Two months ago I was informed by a friend of mine, mons. Nikolaus Wyrwoll, that he had died December 9, 2010 at the age of 64.

At the news that he had died I felt a sense of loss, because for years, speaking about the love of the Protestants for St Nicholas, I brought as a clear example an hymn that he gave to me in 1997, a hymn that I consider the best ever written on our Saint.

He held the Chair for Theology and Culture of the Eastern Orthodox Churches at the Martin Luther University in Halle-Wittenberg, Germany. He was also the Secretary of the Conference of European Churches' (CEC) from 1988 to 1993, and was a committed ecumenist with contacts that included the World Council of Churches, the Moscow Patriarchate, and the Armenian Apostolic Church.

During his time as CEC Study Secretary, Prof. Goltz led studies on the issue of the "Common Mission of Churches" as well as the reconciliation work between different faith communities in the former Yugoslavia. His contribution to CEC was an important theological basis for the debates and decisions taken by the 10th CEC General Assembly in Prague (1992).

"Hermann Goltz was not only my predecessor in his position with CEC", stated Viorel Ionita (General Secretary and Director of the Churches in Dialogue Commission of CEC) “but also a very good friend long before our work for CEC. I learned a lot from him, both in a scientific as well as in a human way. As CEC, we pay tribute to all that he was able to achieve, we mourn his passing away and will keep him in our prayers. At the same time, our thoughts are especially with his wife Sigrid, their three children and six grand-children. May God give Prof. Goltz peace, and his family the strength to overcome these difficult times for them”.

The root of his love for Saint Nicholas

I think that can be found in a statement he made during a conference in Prague 1992 (Ecumenical vision in the Midst of Conflict): “The Churches have to find a way that will lead from the era of common statements into a future of common suffering for justice, peace and the integrity of creation” (Italics are not mine, but the author’s).

I apologize for failing to catch the rhythm of his original poem, but I think I succeeded in putting across his thoughts and feelings. I don’t know whether he wrote originally in German. I publish the Italian version in the Italian edition of the St Nicholas News as he gave it to me.

WITHOUT ST NICHOLAS MY LAND WOULD BE NOT AS IT IS THE WAY I LOVE IT

I

In the name of the Father of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, of the triune God source of living water today I will sing for you an ancient and a new hymn about Saint Nicholas
*from whose body
springs of living water flow.

II

You
pilgrims, men and women, to the spring of Saint Nikolaos the beloved of the Trinity most Holy
*from whose body
springs of living water flow.*

III

You
who came from far away or near here, young and aged,
humble and powerful but all sons of God to visit your bishop who was visited in prison by Jesus and by the most Holy Mother of God
*from whose body
springs of living water flow.*

IV

You
arrived by land, by sea, by air but always in the living element of Nikolaos that is the love of God, you have been protected and are here now where you can hear Christ's words:
"who is thirsty, come to me and drink who believes in me, as the Scripture says

*from whose body
springs of water flow.*

Only the one who closes completely his eyes whether he is from Rome, Wittenberg or Moscow shall not see St Nicholas the Saint of God
*from whose body
springs of living water flow*
as Christ promised to his faithful.

VI

In this gathering together in the streams of the divine Spirit to the sources of God's love appears to us Nicholas' face who never was mean with his heavenly and earthly gifts and never he dried them up because they were not exhaustible
*from whose body
springs of living water flow.*

VII

The love of God abundantly flows from Nicholas, his sacred vessel.
By this love the Saint lives and we with him so that from our bodies too springs of living water flow.

VIII

In the course of my life too started in the city of Görlitz on the German Polish borders in a protestant family in this very course of my life in important moments in beautiful places in dangerous crossroads in meeting points there is Saint Nicholas

*from whose body
springs of living water flow.*

IX

He makes no noise
He doesn't force his presence on us He brings the love of God A love that makes no noise And doesn't force, that is meek and powerful Like ever living water.
The Saint is not visible, he is like His God, God of heaven and earth, Creator of all the world, both visible and invisible, Whom never human eye has seen,
*From whose body
springs of living water flow.*

X

Only late in the course of my life I realized that without Saint Nicholas My land would be not as it is,
the way I love it
my city
Görlitz or Zgorzelec
On the road of the European commerce that from France goes till Kiev.
Only late I realized that I was grown in the Saint's fresh shadow In the blessing of the God of Saint Nicholas
*from whose body
springs of living water flow.*

XI

Because the focal point of the God-Man was down there in the valley in the sorb-slav village of Goreliz where was the little church Sankt Nikolai first merging point between Slavs and Germans.
From here, later, emerged with pride the new city of the Germans over there on the crag with Sankt-Peter.

Down there, in the little Bari of my land, in the Slav village remained quiet and meek Nicholas whom I found again in this great Bari
*from whose body
springs of living water flow.*

XII

The apostle of the Sorbs Saint Benno of Meissen made there resound among Sorb peasants and fishermen God's love in Slavic language ringing crystal made by God's Word, and exactly in those years when St Nicholas from Myra came to Bari was born Sankt Nikolai in that very distant Slavic village
*from whose body
springs of living water flow.*

XIII

In the shadow of the Görlitz Sankt Nikolai is resting the wise of God Jakob Böhme,
shoemaker and theologian, who glimpsed the cosmic Love of which St Nicholas was full in the microcosm of his world in the shining crystal: Nicholas Tower, Nicholas gate, Nicholas moat bulwark and fortification of the city
*from whose body
springs of living water flow.*

XIV

A safety ring put around the town on which it is written St Nicholas' name as a sign of the unending divine love given to the bride as a pledge on the Open Road that goes from the East to the West Nicholas protects those who in peace take the walk crossing the river that goes from the South to the North Nicholas protects under the bridge the fishermen in the boat

*from whose body
springs of living water flow.*

XV

Where the roads cross we meet St Nicholas who walk in the roads from East to West and gives the pearl as a present as we find him together with the seamen in the North and in the South while drowning the evil wherever to the saved resounds his word: Not by me, but by your faith and God's grace you have been saved

XVI

St Nicholas in Leipzig few years ago
nest of the resistance against great and little tyrants in his shadow found shelter the supporters of democracy.
Under his wings not even a hair was touched of the chicks' head of the St Nicholas in Leipzig
*from whose body
springs of living water flow.*

XVII

The democrats of Leipzig did not care very much about the Saint, the State safety forgot to put our Saint under custody.
This way the Saint could act peacefully and everybody was surprised at the non-violence and the pacific way in which the revolution of the late summer 1989 developed around St Nicholas
springs of living water flow.*

XVIII

Focal point that gathers the rays of the pacific revolution, Leipzig's Sankt Nikolai heard:
We are the people !
Do you have caught the announcement's link with St Nicholas' name ?

NIKOLAOS

Only the people who wins over himself wins.

springs of living water flow.*

XIX

This is the victory that still remains
*from whose body
springs of living water flow.*
*Not by me, he says,
but by your faith and God's grace
you have been saved*

XX

Years of meetings with the Russian monk and student Makarij who came to Germany from the Trinity and St Serge Monastery a monk obedient to the superiors left his country and rested in the shadow of the Halle St Nicholas
*from whose body
springs of living water flow.*

XXI

Far from the Orthodox lands the monk Makarij fixed with sad eyes the strange protestant walls and strange was even the road's name where he lived with other students “Kleine Klausstrasse”.

But when someone translated for him that name “Little street of St Nicholas” he felt again in his country and for the first time smiled in an alien country.
Often in Moscow he had crossed the Malyj Nikol’skij Pereùlok.
So it’s enough your name

NIKOLAJ to make out of a foreign land your own country
*from whose body
springs of living water flow.*
Not by me, he says,
*but by your faith and God’s grace
you have been saved.*

XXII
During the pilgrimage to Jerusalem towards the treasury of manuscripts of the Armenian Monastery of St James we went aboard in the evening of the fourteenth of May of the last year here in Bari.
That same day at midday we had gone to the Crypt of St Nicholas and down there we translated the Armenian hymn,
the sciarakach a Surb Nikolajos Hajrapet, to the bishop Nicholas
*from whose body
springs of living water flow.*

XXIII
Down there we read in Armenian and German languages the just then translated hymn in front of the altar that covers the sacred urn of St Nicholas
*from whose body
springs of living water flow.*

XXIV
Now. When we went down to the Crypt all the sky of Bari was dark-grey and it was raining on all the Mediterranean Sea.
When we went back up the sun was shining on the earth and on the sea on St Nicholas of Bari

springs of living water flow.*

XXV

Like a pearl of St Nicholas a gift to his beloved city of Bari I read here again
the Armenian hymn
in honor of this Saint
springs of living water flow.*

.....

Were surprised those who had no body when they saw Saint Nicholas, who, although were in a body, lived a life not comparable with the one of those who are in a body.
Through his intercessions
ask that your sins
be forgiven.

Rejoice Mother of Syon and adorn your bridal chamber of an unutterable beauty because the incorporeal Beliar has been defeated by the corporeal Nikolajos.
Through his intercessions
ask that your sins
be forgiven.

With our prayers we ask to you, Trinity most holy, the remission of our sins through the intercession of St Nicholas.
Through his intercessions
ask for the remission of your sins.

Blessed Mary
golden vessel and Ark of the Covenant, you gave the Bread of life to the injured nature.
You are always near Him and intercede for the reconciliation of our sins.

THE 650 ST NICHOLAS' CHURCHES IN GERMANY

This list will surprise many Catholics and Orthodox accustomed to the idea that Protestants have no Saints. Besides of the fact that the original Protestantism did not reject the Saints as a human example to follow, there is another explanation for the enduring presence of St Nicholas in Germany : he accompanied the birth and the growth of many important cities of Germany, as recently proff. Hermann Goltz and Karlheinz Blaschke pointed out. For example, German scholars define the Church of St Nicholas in Berlin the Pantheon of Berlin-born people (Pantheon der Berliner Geschlechter). In the quoted poem by the protestant historian and theologian Hermann Goltz is said : My country would not be the same without Nicholas. For a people so deeply concerned with his roots, rejecting or forgetting St Nicholas would mean to deny his own history.

This is a list of more than 650 German churches dedicated to S. Nicholas (about 400 Evangelical Lutheran). It is the result of ancient studies on the subject (starting with the Austro-Hungarian Empire), with an updating based on two lists. The first, containing addresses (Adressen der Nikolaus-Pfarreien in Deutschland) and found in an Internet site by Mirella Tempone, a member of the Centro Studi Nicolaiani particularly active (mirellatempone@alice.it), with the German speaking countries, is useful to avoid confusions. The second one (the Church Gazetteer of James Rosenthal and Mrs Carol Myers is precious because it offers the images of the churches and gives news about the Christian denomination that takes care of them.

Rabanus Maurus, the most famous German writer of the IX century, in his Martyrology, while dedicating to most of the Saints four or five lines, to St Nicholas dedicated one page and a half.

Abbreviations: SN = St Nikolaus or Nikolaikirche, RC= Roman Catholic, EL = Evangelisch Lutherische.

NB. The churches are listed in alphabetical order. When there are two or three names, the principal is the one that starts with the letter under which is included. Obviously, I left out chapels (like the ones in Aachen Burtscheid or Worms), and excluded the ones dedicated to Nicholas of Flüe or Tolentino. Given that errors are always possible and all these are “road up”, corrections and informations are welcome.

Ovviamente, non ho inserito le cappelle all'interno di un'altra chiesa (come ad Aachen Burtscheid e alla cattedrale di Worms) né, salvo errore, quelle dedicate a San Nicola di Flüe (come a Idstein-Wörsdorf). Dato comunque che si tratta di lavori in corso, ogni correzione di sviste o errori è benvenuta.
